

New Kernow Doubles Champions

3rd October Tregony

The new holders of the Kernow Doubles title are Pete Lynas and Drew Jarvis. They took the trophy after not dropping a game during the contest, held at Tregony Sports Club on Sunday 3rd October.

This was the first regional event to be held since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic and it was great to see old and new faces - three new members of the region were among those playing - out on the terrain again. Plenty of showers during the day, but the sun came out late in the afternoon, just in time for the finals

Eight teams took part in a programme of two round robin leagues of four in the morning with knockouts in main and plate competitions following after the lunch break. Two teams came out of the morning session with three wins: Pete and Drew and Colin 'Boot' Booth and Roy Pemberton. On two wins were Ceri Owen, Sue Hardy and Mark Hypponen, with other teams having 1 win or, in the case of Vicki Howard - one of the new members of the region - and Graeme Kirkham, no wins!

In the semi-finals for the main title Boot and Roy beat Mark, Ceri and Sue 13-5 and Pete and Drew won 13-4 against Tim Austin and regional president Andy Rose. Pete and Drew motored on to take the final against Boot and Roy 13-1.

The plate semis saw Ray and Sue Smith - two more new recruits to the region - take a narrow win of 13-11 against Pete and Nicky Tombs, and Vicki and Graeme at last finding some form to beat Chris Crane and Paul Rundle 13-3. The plate final was another long, close game, with Vicki and Graeme eventually coming out on top against Ray and Sue 13-11.
